Biography

Andrew Sprung is Principal Clarinetist of the Jackson (Michigan) Symphony Orchestra, Second Clarinetist of the Traverse Symphony Orchestra (Traverse City, Michigan), and Adjunct Instructor of Clarinet at Spring Arbor University and Hillsdale College. He has performed with the Fort Wayne Philharmonic, Lansing Symphony Orchestra, Toledo Symphony Orchestra, Grand Rapids Ballet, Battle Creek Symphony Orchestra, and others. An avid chamber musician, he is a founding member of the Hillsdale College Faculty Woodwind Quintet. As a soloist, Sprung has performed concertos with the Livingston Symphony Orchestra (Brighton, Michigan), Spring Arbor University Concert Band, Bowling Green State University Wind Symphony, and Iowa State University Symphony Orchestra as winner of its concerto competition. His performing career has taken him to Carnegie Hall, Chicago's Orchestra Hall, and venues throughout Europe.

Sprung teaches private lessons, sectionals, and master classes to high school and middle school students throughout Michigan. He currently serves as Artist in Residence at Novi High School, where he teaches sectionals, coaches chamber ensembles, and rehearses and conducts the clarinet choir. He has been published in The Clarinet, the official journal of the International Clarinet Association, and in De Klarinet, a Dutch publication. Sprung is a Selmer Paris Artist, performing on Selmer Signature clarinets.
